Please consider us for membership in the Oregon Safe Schools and Communities Coalition. If we become a member, we will be listed on Coalition publications. It means that we support the mission of the Coalition: to make Oregon schools and communities safe places where every family can belong, every educator can teach, and every child can learn, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. We understand that joining the Coalition in no way precludes our making independent decisions about our own policies and services.

Individual Membership

Dues are $25 per year for individuals, but we invite you to contribute more or less depending on your ability to pay.

Organizational Membership

Basic dues depend upon the size of your organization, but we invite you to contribute more or less depending on your ability to pay, and/or negotiate an in-kind alternative to "dues" if yours is a government agency or, for any other reason, is unable to make a financial contribution. Do not let dues stand in the way of your joining the Coalition.

Suggested Organizational Membership Dues:

Budgets under	$5,000 per year	$25
Budgets	$5-10,000 per year	$50
Budgets	$10-50,000 per year	$100
Budgets	$50-150,000 per year	$150
Budgets over	$150,000 per year	$200

Your contribution to OSSCC is tax deductible. (Rural Organizing Project serves as the fiscal agent for the Oregon Safe Schools and Communities Coalition and is a 501(c)3 organization.) Enclose a check payable to: Oregon Safe Schools and Communities Coalition.
